• If an officer is detained on a criminal charge or otherwise for a period of forty-eight hours from the date of his detention or in the event of a conviction for an offence, he is sentenced to a term of imprisonment exceeding forty-eight hours and is not forthwith dismissed or compulsorily retired consequent to such conviction an officer employee is deemed to be under suspension and there is no need to wait for a formal order by the competent authority;

• An order of suspension shall be deemed to have been continued in force or made until it is modified or revoked specifically by the competent authority.

• The object and purpose of placing an officer employee under suspension is to keep him away from a position where he can interfere with the conduct of the enquiry, tamper with the oral and/or documentary evidence in any manner or, having regard to the nature of the charges against him, divest him of the powers of the post as it would be unsafe to allow him to continue to exercise such powers or to restore the morale of the officers and other employees.

• An order of suspension is not an order of punishment. Suspension is an administrative action necessary for the safety, security, discipline and good order in the establishment. Some of the practical reasons for suspending an employee who is alleged to have committed a misconduct or an offence are:
(1) the employee's presence in the establishment in dangerous and/or risky;
(2) other employees may be encouraged to commit an offence or a misconduct in the absence of an immediate visible action against a delinquent employee;
(3) the delinquent employee's presence in the establishment may adversely affect the morale of the officers; etc.

13. Leave during Suspension

No leave shall be granted to an officer employee under suspension.

14. Subsistence Allowance during Suspension

1. An officer employee who is placed under suspension shall during the period of such suspension and subject to sub-regulations (2) to (4) be entitled to receive payment from the bank by way of subsistence allowance on the following scale, namely

   a. Basic Pay

      i. For the first three months of suspension, 1/3 of the Basic Pay which the officer employee was receiving on the date prior to the date of suspension irrespective of the nature of enquiry.

      ii. For the subsequent period after 3 months from the date of suspension.

   1. Where the enquiry is held departmentally by the bank, ½ of the basic pay the officer employee was drawing on the date prior to the date of suspension; and

   2. Where the enquiry is held by an outside agency, 1/3 of the basic pay which the officer employee was drawing on the date prior to the date of suspension for the next three months and ½ of the basic pay which the officer employee was drawing on the date prior to the date of suspension for the remaining period of the suspension.

   b. Allowances

      1. For the entire period of suspension, dearness allowance and other allowances excepting conveyance allowance, entertainment allowance and special allowance will be calculated on the reduced pay as specified in items (i) and (ii) of clause (a) and at the prevailing rates or at rates applicable to similar category of officers.

      2. During the period of suspension an officer employee shall not be entitled to occupation of rent-free house or free use of the Bank's car or receipt of conveyance or entertainment allowance or special allowance.

      3. No officer employee of the Bank shall be entitled to receive payment of subsistence allowance unless he furnishes a certificate that he is not engaged in any other employment, business, profession or vocation.
4. If, during the period of suspension an officer employee retires by reason of his attaining the age of superannuation, no subsistence allowance shall be paid to him from the date of his retirement.

15. Pay, allowances and treatment of service on termination of suspension
